

Journal of the History of Collections

Volume 19 Number 1 2007

Contents

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| Ambassadorial plate of the later Stuart period and the collection of the Earl of StraffordHelen Jacobsen                             | 1   |
| The cabinet of François-Emmanuel Bonne de Créquy, Duc de Lesdiguières: a taste most refinedMoana Weil-Curiel                         | 15  |
| A friendly gathering: the social politics of presentation books and their extra-illustration inHorace Walpole's circleLucy Peltz | 33  |
| A pinacothèque préhistorique for the Musée des Antiquités Nationales in Saint-Germain-en-LayeMaria P. Gindhart                | 51  |
| Desiring Holbein: presence and absence in the National GalleryHelen Rees Leahy   | 75  |
| Provincial hopology: collecting arms and armour in Ontario, 1850–1950Steven A. Walton  | 89  |
| The Royal Architectural Museum in the light of new documentary evidenceEdward Bottoms  | 115 |
| Book reviews  | 141 |
| Books received  | 159 |